VOLUME XLIX. NUMBER 32.

AND now they talk of "reasonable preparedness." What is reasonable preparedness? How many more battleships will it require, and how great the augmentation of our standing army? Who is to draw the line beyond which the proposed militarism must not go? Once we abandon our faith in the strength of our Right and flee to the devil's sanctuary of Might, we shall turn from the memory of the Fathers and armed Despotism will soon sound its triumphant strains over the dead Republic. Read history, men and brethren!

Mr. Roach's letter, in this paper, is a full and complete refutation of the loud-mouthed charge of "nepotism" made against him by partisan newspapers, joined I regret to say, by the pure and undefiled Post-Dispatch. That paper asserts, in sustenance of its charge of nepotism, heretofore made, that one of Mr. Roach's daughters is a teacher in the Springfield Normal School. What do you think of that? To what ends has this ill-founded accusation may lead us, and how we squirm and scramble to get out of the hole of our own digging!

Our Prohibition friends assure us that crime is resultant, chiefly, upon "the liquor traffic;" that with the abolition of the saloon go empty jails and criminal costs shrink to little or nothing; and that drastic anti-liquor legislation brings about this happy condition. It is a beautiful theory, but, somehow, experience does not confirm it. Crime and law-breaking are so prevalent in Kansas as in Illinois; in Georgia as in Mississippi; in Maine as in Ohio. For example, and by no means an isolated case, the following news dispatch to the Cincinnati Enquirer tells of the celebration of Christmas in Atlanta, the capital and metropolis of "dry" Georgia. The dispatch follows:

This was Atlanta's bloodiest Christmas. Four men are dead at Grady Hospital, as the result of a shooting, and about 35 are suffering from gunshot wounds, and 50 more are victims of cutting affrays, according to reports from the hospital. Five other men are not expected to live, as the nature of their wounds is considered serious by the hospital physicians. Most of the dead and wounded are negroes. Trouble began about 2 o'clock this morning in the negro district. Wounded negroes, some shot, some stabbed, some slashed with razors and others with dirks, flooded Grady Hospital, making this Christmas Day the bloodiest ever recorded in Atlanta. The cases were so numerous that the physicians were hard pressed.

From Jefferson City.

Honestly, we feel sorry for our Republican friends, both Standpatters and Progressives. The Progressives are going to lose Mr. Roosevelt if the Standpatters will submit to a sufficient amount of dictation to allow him to slide to the home plate and save his face. The Standpatters are going to see him lead another forlorn hope unless they let him write the platform and dictate their candidate. Both factions are absolutely at his mercy and he's a dead ringer for the fabled bull in a china shop. No matter which way he turns there's going to be a crash of crockery and dashing of hopes. Although our heart aches for you, boys, we cannot help praying that the Lord may increase your pains.

Ex-president Taft says that no quarter will be given Progressives and that the suggestion that other than a Standpatter be nominated for President is absurd. He says that should the Republicans nominate other than a Standpatter it would not deserve to win, and says that the fight against Progressiveness must go on. Hear him say:

"The Republican party will be maintained as a Republican party. It will not become a Progressive party, with the fads and isms contemplated by the change. The returning Progressive will have standing in the Republican party; but that of the regular Republican who did not stray cannot be impaired. The Republican party is not dependent on the Progressive leaders for success in next campaign. The Progressive voters who have come back attached no condition to their coming."

We do not know who the militant Democracy of Missouri will nominate for Governor, but we do know that any man the Democrats nominate in August will be elected in November. This talk about there only being one or two men the Democratic party can elect Governor of Missouri is the veriest tommy-rot. There are a thousand Democrats of Missouri and any one of them would make Missouri a good Governor and any one of them the people will nominate will be elected. Don't let anyone stuff you with the one-man idea—there's nothing to it but the fellow's desire to pick the man. This paper will have its choice for Governor until after the State primary and then the party's choice will be our choice. And all loyal Democrats feel the same way about it.

During the past year the Globe-Democrat's Jefferson City correspondent busted the State treasury seven or eight times—once each month and five semi-months. And he bobs up serenely January 1, 1916, with the same old story. Perhaps he is getting an early start in order to break a record campaign year. Notwithstanding the antics of the State treasury buster, Deal goes right on handing out the cash for every warrant presented at the treasury window. Funny how a dog-gasted buster keeps right on paying cash down on demand. We like a far, but we want it understood that we can be suited too well.

You can bet your last doughnut that if Theodore Roosevelt is with the Republican party this year that he will be driving the band wagon as its nominee for President. Teddy will have to lead the procession or he will not play. The Oyster Bay four-flusher is fishing for the nomination and bids fair to hook it. He was the star boarder at the Steel Trust dinner and touched elbows with corporation magnates who represented twelve billion dollars of wealth. Keep your eye on Teddy Roosevelt—you'll find him out standing the strongest Standpatter before the roses bloom again.

Yellowstone Landslides.

The lot of the engineer is happier than the policeman's, to be sure, but he also has his troubles. Sometimes they are very big and expensive troubles like Col. Goethal's land slides at Panama, and sometimes they are merely bothersome, like Maj. Fries' land slides in the Yellowstone.

Maj. Fries is the War Department engineer whose work on the Yellowstone roads made it possible for Secretary Lane to open the National Park to motorists this last summer. He has had his big troubles, too, and plenty more ahead before he gets Yellowstone's 350 miles of road surfaced and oiled for the good days that are coming.

The major's landslide is really not much of an affair, but, as the road system is narrow and a stoppage anywhere will become, if not instantly repaired, something of a disaster in a very short time, it stirs up feelings out of all proportion to its size. Gangs have to be called from other work and hustled to the spot at a nearly fire-engine speed as lumbering repair carts and Government horses can accomplish. A hose cart and service engine help out the simile.

The hill which every now and then, always, of course, at the most inconvenient time, slides down over the road, is composed of gravel and loose conglomerate rock, streaked with yellow slippery clay. There is a great to-do to shove it off. Meanwhile the engine has been set up and a heavy stream of water at 70 pounds' pressure is played on the earth above, so as to wash down as much of the stuff as possible while they are at it and thus strengthen the interval to the next slide; but at that the hill sometimes fools them and slides off soon afterward in quite another spot.

Maj. Fries has to endure this nuisance as best he may, because the expense of digging away the hill or replacing the road elsewhere forbids a permanent cure.

Of unusual interest is the announcement "Wonderful Campaign Year Bargain" by that sterling newspaper the St. Louis Globe-Democrat elsewhere in this issue. The full and complete Daily Globe-Democrat, six issues per week, is offered on yearly subscription received by March 1, 1916, to Rural Free Delivery and Star Route patrons at the absolutely unprecedented rate of Two Dollars per year or if the Sunday paper is desired, seven issues per week for four dollars per year. This remarkable low rate is also open to subscribers who receive their mail at post offices where the Daily Globe-Democrat is not handled by local newsdealers. It is not open to subscribers who live in towns served by Daily Globe-Democrat dealers. The regular price of the Daily Globe-Democrat including Sunday is 66 cents per year. Daily without Sunday, $4.00 per year. Read the announcement and grasp the opportunity while you may. No subscriptions accepted at the special rate after March 1, 1916, or for a shorter term than one year. Send in your subscription to-day. Address Globe-Democrat Company, Publishers, St. Louis, Mo.

GOOD NEWS.

Many Ironton Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the many bad back sufferers in Ironton are glad to learn where relief may be found. Many a lame, weak and aching back has been cured, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with the tested remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

"One of my family was in pretty bad shape and suffered almost constantly from backache, sometimes being scarcely able to get about. The kidney secretions were generally too frequent in passage, particularly at night and often painful. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the Arcadia Valley Drug Co., stopped all that and we have never been without them in the house since."

Price, 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Rust recommends. Foster-McBurm Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

Obituary.

Mrs. Elvira Dunn was born in Alabama, February 25, 1840, and died at Ironton, Mo., October 15, 1915, after an illness of over a year. She bore her suffering without a murmur and she was so willing to go. She said that she was just waiting for the Lord to call her and then she would go home, where her suffering would be over.

During her illness she often repeated verses of the scripture. Her favorite verse was, "In the sixth trial I will be with thee; and in the seventh

I will not forsake thee." Oh what a comfort it is to know that after all her suffering our dear mother is at rest. She was converted at the age of 15 years and joined the United Baptist Church at Chloride, of which she was a faithful member until her death.

She is survived by three daughters and three sons, her husband and one son having preceded her to that shining shore and is now with her, beckoning their loved ones home. Oh, that we may all live in humble obedience to our Savior and when our work on earth is ended, we may be ready to go, meet them in that celestial city where sorrows never enter, there to sing our Redeemer's praises, in a day that never ends.

But, mother dear, we cannot see you, Tho' we see your vacant chair, And our hearts are almost broken, For we cannot see you here. How we miss your loving smiles, Your sweet words, and kind embrace.

Oh, we can never find another, So dear to us as your sweet face. Oh, how it cheers our heart, To think of the bright, happy faces, and sweet smiles.

That came to her on the very brink Of cold Jordan's swelling tide.

HER GRANDDAUGHTER, Chloride, Mo., January 6, 1916.
